NOTES:

Deductions were given for getting picked up in the bus because team was running late

Some teams may have got to the right checkpoint but got the wrong answer to the question and so couldn't prove it. Will try and use more marshals next year

On the country code quiz, for 18 points all they had to do was copy the answer off the information provided

Once it became clear that Mark had got his estimates wrong on the Sunday route timings we didn't deduct teams points for getting it wrong
